

Seeking graduate students for part-time research opportunity

Salary:	Hourly ($20/hr)
Full/Part Time:	Part Time (0.2 FTE; ~8 hours/week)
Desired Start Date:	Jan. 6, 2022
Job End Date:	June 24, 2022
Number of Positions:	6

We seek outstanding graduate students in engineering or related programs who are interested in furthering their education in medicine to participate in a program as part-time clinical research assistants.

Successful candidates will be paired with physician mentors at St. Paul's Hospital and will be able to observe clinical encounters, shadow on rounds, and participate in other activities as available.

Candidates and mentors will collaboratively develop a project that will address a current clinical need.
